

THE GOD OF ALL COMFORT

"A Service of Healing and Holy Communion"

"Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light."

Matthew 11:28-30

In biblical times, sackcloth was used as a symbol of grief, penance, pain, and sorrow.

Tonight we leave restored, reminded that He is our God of comfort. We leave with the conviction that Christ is with us in trials, pain, and tribulation. His Spirit strengthens us and lifts our souls.

May the Spirit of God help us to see that resolved and unresolved, he has always been with us in our "meanwhiles."
